

In late December 2011, KIU opened an opportunity to award full scholarships to keen prospective students. The response was overwhelming Alhumdulillah. In the space of one week KIU received several hundred registrations from applicants in over 40 countries.

Students are required to complete the online course Manhaj As-Saalikeen, a KIU course that previously ran in the Summer of 2010.

The course is made up of set reading text and 11 lectures conducted by Sh Saad Ash-Shethri and translated by Sh Sajid Umar. Short multiple choice tests have been set to follow each lecture and a final exam has been set for the end of the course.

The course is open for two weeks and a minimum of 70% has been set as the pass mark.

After the course deadline has expired, the KIU selection committee will work through all submitted applications and will determine suitable candidates to award a full scholarship.

Successful candidates will study the entire KIU degree free of charge.

